Spotted Flower
木尾士目 第12話
Shimeku Kio
Well, first things first. Here you go.
Whoa. So this is it, huh?
Did you know? I took a look today and even the used copies were going for over ten thousand
Guess that's because they don't let you use a depuby service
Wow, this is really Volfex's last minute limited print KenKore☆ doujinshi
I dunno how you managed to get your hands on this
Haha
I had to do some really unspeakable things, actually

T/N: At the comike, popular circles that generate long lines are positioned at the walls to minimize congestion.

Actually I just asked someone I knew for a copy
...Sorry, that was a joke ♡
Aah...
Well, you are an established adult mangaka and leader of one of the big wall circles
Makes sense you'd have a lot of connections
Oh, stop it
I'm still just...
...your underclassman from our club
Haha... Yeah
...So, I've heard that your wife's belly is showing quite a bit now
It's already at the point where people automatically get up and give her their seates in the subway

The baby's been moving a lot more recently,
and sometimes she kicks or moves her arms around inside,
and that causes uterine contractions,
and I think that really hurts for her
We actually couldn't go to a shrine for the New Year because of it
That means that you haven't held her as a woman for quite some time doesn't it?
Then senpai...
Haha...
Wonder how they do it when they're floating in water
And sometimes her stomach just spasms, and that's the baby sneezing

When you think of the baby being inside her belly...
Wha-
Wai-
Hey! We're in public...
You can't get it up, can you?
And on top of that, you hurt your right hand.
You know,...
I could help you with that, if you wanted
HELP?
What I'm saying is,
HEL...
I could take care of...
TAKE CARE?
of what?

—Sorry, that was a joke
After all...
I know you wouldn't do that, senpai
Or rather, you couldn't

We both know...
...you're totally spineless.
...Well, then.
Good-bye for now.
Mhmm. Thanks for the down-she

Until next time. ♡
Oh?
That was quick.
You could've just had it sent by mail...
Well yeah, I was just picking up a doujinshi.

I suppose
That's okay with you right?
Yeah. I guess since we didn't have the chance to talk much last Comiket
I think your old underclassman just wanted to take the opportunity to meet you
Well, I guess I AM okay with it, but...
But every time they meet,
he leaves that scent on my husband's clothes, almost like he's flaunting it.
It's perfume
Men can only get pregnant in video games, dammit!
I think he still hasn't given up...
Fin.
